3. PUBLISHING RIGHT

- 3.1. Publishing Right. Wiley agrees, during the Publishing Right Period, to the open access publication of Eligible Articles as requested by Eligible Authors, in accordance with the terms set forth in Sections 3 and 5:
 - 3.1.a. in Wiley's Hybrid Journals, subject to the Article Entitlement;
 - 3.1.b. Wiley maintains an up-to-date, publicly available, online list of the applicable journals and the APCs, as described in Appendix A; the online list governs the journals covered by this Agreement. The Parties agree the APCs are based on the services and value provided by the journal in which such material is published. Wiley is permitted to change the applicable journals and the APCs from time to time (e.g., including but not limited to where there are adjustments to Wiley's portfolio of journals, Hybrid Journals transition to fully open access journals (i.e., Gold Journals), price changes, etc.).
 - 3.1.b.i. Where Wiley transitions a Hybrid Journal to a Gold Journal, Wiley will review the articles published by Consortium's members in each transitioning title in the rolling 12-month period prior to the date on which the transitioned title is published as a Gold Journal. If Wiley determines greater than 5% of the Article Entitlement in any Contract Year transitioned to a Gold Journal (meaning an Eligible Article was published in Hybrid Journal that transitioned to a Gold Journal), then Wiley will notify the Customer no later than October 1st, and on agreement of the parties prior to invoicing for a subsequent Contract Year, the Publishing Right terms can be renegotiated.
- 3.2. Open Access Publishing Agreement. Before the version of record is published, Eligible Authors of Eligible Articles (and, if different, the owner of any copyright in such articles), must sign Wiley's then-current open access publishing agreement. Eligible Authors will be able to select from the following Creative Commons licenses, as applicable for the particular journal: Attribution International (CC-BY), Attribution Non-Commercial International (CC-BY-NC), Attribution Non-Derivatives International (CC-BY-ND), or Attribution Non-Commercial Non-Derivative International (CC-BY-NC-ND). The publication workflow will, whenever possible, direct Eligible Authors to CC-BY as the first option if permitted by the applicable journal and its policies.

3.3. WOAA Workflow:

3.3.a. Hybrid Journals. Under the Hybrid WOAA Workflow, the Eligible Author, as designated on submission of an Eligible Article, or subsequently identified as such within Author Services, must identify the Eligible Author's affiliation with a Member Institution, by selecting from a standardized list of institutions in the electronic editorial office submission and Author Services systems. Once the affiliation is identified, the Eligible Author will be presented with a choice of publishing open access. Wiley will include sufficient information and guidance to encourage Eligible Authors to publish open access as part of this Agreement (so long as the correct affiliation of the Eligible Author is captured in Wiley system metadata) and that they do not need to pay an APC. If an author elects not to publish open access, the article will not be covered by the Article Entitlement.

3.4. Non-Standard Workflow. For Hybrid Journals that do not follow the WOAA Workflow, Wiley will make reasonable efforts to inform the Eligible Author that the Eligible Articles are meant to be published open access under this Agreement where the Eligible Author has identified an affiliation with a Member Institution in the electronic editorial office submission system.

3.5. Wiley will:

3.5.a. be responsible for identifying the potentially eligible authors under this Agreement (which are then subject to the verification process identified below);

3.5.b. not charge an Eligible Author an APC for any Eligible Article as long as the Eligible Author follows the submissions and WOAA Workflow. If the submissions and WOAA Workflow is not followed, any APC subsequently incurred by the Eligible Author is not covered by this Agreement and the Eligible Article will not be deducted from the Article Entitlement. If an Eligible Author follows the WOAA Workflow but did not select open access publishing, and requests Wiley to change the publication basis prior to being published, Wiley will do so, and the Eligible Article will be deducted from the Article Entitlement. Changes cannot be made post-publication.

3.5.c. include the Customer in the Institutional Account List for all Hybrid Journals as an institutional account holder;

3.5.d. provide a link for the Customer on the Institutional Account List on Author Services;

3.5.e. identify on Wiley Online Library the Hybrid Journal articles that are open access;

3.5.f. make reports of account activity available to the Customer via the WOAD;

3.5.g. provide the article record in the dashboard with all necessary metadata including, but not limited to, name, ORCID (if provided) and email address of all authors, full name of author's affiliation (e.g., university), acceptance date, journal title, article DOI (if applicable), article title, article classification, amount of the APC.

3.6. If Wiley fails to identify Corresponding Authors as eligible and then publishes their article on a subscription basis, Wiley shall be responsible to convert the article so that it is published open access. If Wiley fails to identify Corresponding Authors as eligible and then charges them for publication of their article, Wiley shall refund the author within 30 days.

3.7. Verification process.

3.7.a. Wiley will identify potentially eligible authors through at least one of the following parameters: their organization name; their e-mail domain; or persistent identifier, such as Ringgold or another recognized institutional identifier, and then request verification from the Consortium that the author is an Eligible Author.

3.7.b. It is the sole responsibility of the Consortium to verify, within their WOAD, that the author qualifies as an Eligible Author (as defined herein). Consortium will approve or deny requests for verification from Wiley within 5 days. If the Consortium requires more time, it must notify Wiley and Wiley will provide a reasonable extension.

3.8. Editorial Independence. Nothing herein will oblige Wiley to publish any article submitted to Wiley by an Eligible Author. The Customer acknowledges that the selection of material to be published is entirely at the discretion of Wiley/the editors and the Customer waives any claim it may have against Wiley in the event that Wiley or its editors refuse or decline to publish any material (or part thereof) submitted by an Eligible Author, or retract any material published by Wiley under this Agreement. An article will be considered to be selected for publication once the Eligible Author has been notified that the article has been accepted and Wiley has received the applicable publishing agreement signed by the right holder(s) of the article.

Authorized Users may also transmit such material to a third-party colleague in hard copy or electronically, for personal use, namely scholarly, educational, or scientific research or professional use but in no case for resale, systematic distribution, e.g., posting on a listserv, network (including distribution through social networking websites and scholarly collaboration networks, except for those that have agreed to Wiley's Article Sharing Policy found here: <https://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/researchers/tools-resources/article-sharing> and solely in accordance therewith) or automated delivery, or for any other use. In addition, Authorized Users have the right to use, with appropriate credit, figures, tables and brief excerpts from individual articles, chapters or other entries from the Licensed Electronic Products in the Authorized User's own scientific, scholarly and educational works such as books and articles. This right does not extend to use of material, including images or figures that are separately listed as the copyright of a third party.

4.1.b. All Authorized Users have the option to create a My Profile Page, which will allow them to create data files and links to articles, chapters and entries of interest in the Licensed Electronic Products, and search criteria, which may be reused by them. In order to do so, the Authorized User will have to select and register a username and password which the Authorized User must keep confidential and not disclose to or share with anyone else.

4.1.c. The Customer and its Authorized Users may create links to Wiley Online Library from their Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC) records, library catalogs, link resolvers, locally hosted databases or library web pages, provided those links are operated by the Customer on a Secure Network, do not result in access to licensed content by anyone other than Authorized Users, and are not used in connection with any paid or commercial service or for any other commercial use whatsoever. Authorized Users may search, view, and browse Licensed Electronic Products using the interface provided by Wiley. Except as provided by 4.1.f. below, automated searching, robotic searching and decompilation are strictly prohibited.

- 4.1.d. Authorized Users who are members of the Customer's faculty or staff may download and print out multiple copies of material from Licensed Electronic Products for the purpose of making a multi-source collection of information for classroom use (course-pack) or a virtual learning environment, to be distributed to students at the Customer's institution free of charge or at a cost-based fee. Material from Licensed Electronic Products may also be stored in electronic format in secure electronic data files for access by Authorized Users who are students at the Customer's institution, as part of their course work, so long as reasonable access control methods are employed such as username and password.
- 4.1.e. The Customer's library staff may supply to another library, upon request by that library, either a single paper copy or an electronic copy of an individual document from the Licensed Electronic Products, for the purpose of research or private study. The electronic copy must be in PDF format, supplied by secure electronic transmission and must be deleted by the recipient library immediately after printing a paper copy of the document for its user.
- 4.1.f. Authorized Users who wish to text and data mine the Licensed Electronic Products for non-commercial purposes may do so using the Wiley TDM API. Authorized Users will need to accept Wiley's Text and Data Mining Agreement to receive an API token. See here for further details: <https://www.onlinelibrary.wiley.com/library-info/resources/text-and-datamining>.
- 4.1.g. The Customer and its Authorized Users may provide print or electronic copies of individual items of the Licensed Electronic Products to national or international regulatory authorities for the purposes of or in anticipation of regulatory approval and/or trademark application or other regulatory purposes in respect of the Customer's product or services.
- 4.1.h. All Authorized Users are bound by the Terms of Use which are available at <https://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/terms-and-conditions>. Wiley reserves the right to modify such Terms of Use as described therein. In the event of any discrepancy between the Terms of Use and this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement control.
- 4.1.i. Authorized users must be informed of, and agree to abide by, the Terms and Conditions of Use set forth herein.
- 4.2. Except as expressly provided in Section 4.1 above or with respect to material published on an open access basis (which material is governed by the corresponding open access license), Authorized Users may not copy, distribute, transmit or otherwise reproduce, sell, or resell material from the Electronic Products; post or store such material in any form or medium in a retrieval system, network or listserv; transmit such material, directly or indirectly, for use in any paid service such as document delivery or list serve, or for use by any information brokerage or for systematic distribution, whether or not for commercial or non-profit use, or for a fee or free of charge; or integrate material from the Electronic Products with other material or otherwise create derivative works in any medium. However, brief quotations for purposes of comment, criticism or similar scholarly purposes are not prohibited herein. The grant of rights regarding TDM contained in Paragraph 3.1.f above in no way broadens the scope of other rights granted under this Agreement. For avoidance of doubt, the Customer and Authorized Users may not, in communicating TDM results, create products that substitute for the Licensed Electronic Products, whether for internal or external use, nor may the Customer or the Authorized Users make the results in the form of data sets available to third parties, nor may the Customer or Authorized Users produce derivative products or services based on the Licensed Electronic Products. Content files delivered by Wiley will be used solely for TDM. The Customer and Authorized Users may not recompile the content files into other formats for human reading.

- 4.3. The Customer and its Authorized Users may not remove, obscure or modify any copyright or proprietary notices, author attribution or any disclaimer as they appear on Wiley Online Library, the Electronic Products, WOAA, or WOAD.
- 4.4. Authorized Users may not do anything to restrict or inhibit any other Authorized User's access to or use of Wiley Online Library, the Licensed Electronic Products, WOAA, or WOAD.
- 4.5. If an Authorized User fails to abide by these Terms and Conditions of Use or other terms of this Agreement, infringes Wiley's Intellectual Property Rights, or a Member Institution hosts an authentication method and parameters that have been identified as abusive or malicious, Wiley reserves the right in its sole discretion to suspend or terminate access to Wiley Online Library, the Licensed Electronic Products, WOAA and WOAD by such Authorized User or to terminate the authentication method and parameters immediately without notice, in addition to any other available remedies, and Customer will assist Wiley as necessary. Except in the case of a material breach which Wiley deems dangerous to the integrity and security of Wiley Online Library, or for a breach which, if not immediately remedied, is likely in Wiley's opinion to continue to cause damage, Wiley will give prior written notice to the Consortium and the Member Institution of its intention to terminate such access and will allow the Consortium, Member Institution and/or the Authorized User as applicable 30 days after receipt of such notice to cure the breach or agree to abide by the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The Consortium and/or the Member Institution must notify Wiley when malicious credentials associated with offending authentication method and parameters have been remediated. Wiley will immediately restore services upon notification that credentials associated with the abusive or malicious activity have been remediated.

- 8.4.b.ii. expiration or termination of this Agreement. Wiley in its sole discretion may extend access to the Licensed Electronic Products for a limited period of time during the negotiation of a new agreement and subject to the Terms and Conditions of Use and the Customer obligations in Section 6.2.
- 8.5. Opt out clause. The performance of the Member Institutions of their obligations under the Agreement shall be subject to and contingent upon the availability of funds provided, allocated, or allotted in institutional budgets or otherwise lawfully expendable for the purpose of the Agreement for the current and future Agreement term. Any Member Institution shall provide notice to Wiley of the non-availability of such funds by November 1st and the intent to terminate the Agreement beginning on January 1st of the forthcoming year. If a Member Institution executes this option, no refund of payment already received by Wiley will be owed to the Member Institution. The determination of whether funds are available shall be made in the sole discretion of the applicable Member Institution. The termination of participation by one Member Institution will not constitute a default or a termination of participation of any other Member Institutions under the Agreement and shall not be grounds for any increase in fees payable by other Member Institutions.
- 8.5.a. If a Member Institution opts out for a subsequent year, the Article Entitlement for Hybrid Journals for such subsequent year will be adjusted to remove the fees of the Member Institution that has opted out.

9. WARRANTIES AND DISCLAIMERS

- 9.1. Wiley represents and warrants that it has the right and authority to make the Licensed Electronic Products available to the Customer and its Authorized Users pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and that, to the best of Wiley's knowledge, the Licensed Electronic Products do not infringe upon any copyright, patent, trade secret or other proprietary right of any third party.
- 9.2. Wiley Online Library, the Electronic Products, WOAA, and WOAD may provide Authorized Users with links to third-party websites. Where such links exist, Wiley disclaims all responsibility and liability for the content of such third-party websites. Authorized Users assume sole responsibility for the accessing of third-party websites and the use of any content on such websites.
- 9.3. Except for the warranties provided by Wiley in Section 9.1 above,
 - 9.3.a. WILEY ONLINE LIBRARY, WOAA, WOAD, THE ELECTRONIC PRODUCTS AND ALL MATERIALS CONTAINED THEREIN ARE PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS" BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, WARRANTIES OF TITLE, OR IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE;
 - 9.3.b. THE USE OF WILEY ONLINE LIBRARY, WOAA, WOAD, THE ELECTRONIC PRODUCTS, AND ALL MATERIALS CONTAINED THEREIN IS AT THE AUTHORIZED USER'S OWN RISK;
 - 9.3.c. ACCESS TO WILEY ONLINE LIBRARY, WOAA, WOAD, THE ELECTRONIC PRODUCTS MAY BE INTERRUPTED AND MAY NOT BE ERROR FREE; AND
 - 9.3.d. NEITHER WILEY NOR ANYONE ELSE INVOLVED IN CREATING, PRODUCING OR DELIVERING WILEY ONLINE LIBRARY, WOAA, WOAD, THE ELECTRONIC PRODUCTS, OR THE MATERIALS CONTAINED THEREIN, WILL BE LIABLE FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THE AUTHORIZED USER'S USE OF OR INABILITY TO USE WILEY ONLINE LIBRARY, WOAA, WOAD, THE ELECTRONIC PRODUCTS AND ALL MATERIALS CONTAINED THEREIN.
- 9.4. Wiley will indemnify and hold Customer harmless from and against any damages, costs and fees (including reasonable attorney's fees) resulting from any judgment against Customer arising out of the claim of a third party that Wiley's license of the Licensed Electronic Products or Customer's use thereof constitutes an infringement of any copyright, patent, or trade secret of any such third party. This indemnity will survive termination of the Agreement for two years. This indemnity will not apply if the claim involves content which has been modified or used in a manner not permitted under this Agreement or if Customer has failed to comply with other material terms of this Agreement.
- 9.5. Customer must give prompt notice of an infringement claim to Wiley, provide such cooperation and assistance to Wiley as is reasonably necessary to defend the claim, and allow Wiley to have the sole control of the defense, provided, however, that the Customer retains the right to participate in the defense at its own expense.

10. CONFIDENTIALITY PROVISIONS

- 10.1. While negotiating this Agreement and during the Term thereafter, Wiley may provide the Customer with certain information, which may be oral or written (including information in electronic format), which is deemed confidential. For the purposes of this Agreement, Confidential Information is defined to include, but is not limited to, the terms and conditions of this Agreement that have been negotiated, such as financial terms, the substance of all negotiations relating thereto, all information pertaining to Wiley Online Library which is proprietary to Wiley, and any other material which has either been marked “confidential” by Wiley or which, by the nature of the circumstances surrounding the disclosure, would be understood to be confidential by a reasonable party.

- 10.2. The Customer may only use Confidential Information for the purposes of negotiating and implementing this Agreement. The Customer agrees to take reasonable care to protect the Confidential Information from disclosure to third parties and to limit disclosure of the Confidential Information to those employees or contractors of the Customer including affiliates of the Customer who have a need to know in connection with this Agreement, and who have been made aware of, and agree to abide by, these restrictions. When disclosure is legally mandated, the parties will use, whenever possible, a version of the Agreement without Confidential Information including financial terms.
- 10.3. A redacted version of the Agreement may be made public 30 days after the last day on which it has been duly executed by both parties, and all fees paid by each Customer will be kept confidential and redacted from any public disclosure.

11. AUTHORS’ RIGHTS TO USE THEIR OWN JOURNAL ARTICLES

- 11.1. Authors shall also be able to comply with mandates from government and not for profit funders (including those listed on Wiley’s funder page (<https://authorservices.wiley.com/author-resources/Journal-Authors/open-access/affiliation-policies-payments/funder-agreements.html>)) to deposit the Content in other repositories. Authors who deposit Content in the [Institution’s name] repository will be instructed by Wiley to designate an embargo period consistent with their publication agreement with Wiley, and Customer will implement such embargoes if instructed to do so by Authors. Authors may seek exceptions to the embargo policy from Wiley. If Wiley becomes aware that deposited Content has been made publicly available before the end of an agreed-upon embargo period, Wiley will inform the Customer, and the Customer will use reasonable efforts to investigate the status and take appropriate action.
- 11.2. Customer will make all reasonable efforts to link from the deposited version to the final article on Wiley Online Library and include the following notice: “This is the peer reviewed version of the following article: [FULL CITE], which has been published in final form at [link to final article]. This article may be used for non-commercial purposes in accordance with Wiley Terms and Conditions for Use of Self-Archived Versions. This article may not be enhanced, enriched or otherwise transformed into a derivative work, without express permission from Wiley or by statutory rights under applicable legislation. Copyright notices must not be removed, obscured or modified. The article must be linked to Wiley’s version of record on Wiley Online Library and any embedding, framing or otherwise making available the article or pages thereof by third parties from platforms, services and websites other than Wiley Online Library must be prohibited”. The Customer may not redistribute such self-archived articles except as permitted in this paragraph, whether for commercial or non-commercial purposes. This provision does not give the Customer or any Authorized User the right to incorporate into any institutional or other repository Wiley’s final published version from the Licensed Electronic Products (as distinct from the version of the article accepted for publication including the revisions from the peer review process). For clarity, nothing in this paragraph will eliminate or limit any other rights that the Customer or any Authorized User may have to deposit, host or make available articles published in Wiley journals.
- 11.3. For the avoidance of doubt, it is the intent of the parties to this Agreement that Customer’s Authors are third party beneficiaries of this provision of the Agreement. Nothing in this paragraph shall eliminate or limit any other rights that Customer or any Author may have to deposit, host or make available articles published in the Licensed Electronic Products. In the same way, nothing in this paragraph shall operate to give Customer or any Author the right to incorporate into any institutional or other repository Wiley's final published version of any Content from the Licensed Electronic Products.

11.4. Definitions:

- 11.4.a. Author: An author of a work published in the Licensed Electronic Products who is an Authorized User of the Licensed Electronic Products.
- 11.4.b. Content: The accepted manuscript version (after peer review and including revisions from the peer review process but before copy-editing and final publication) of any journal article by an Author that is published in the Licensed Electronic Products. For the avoidance of doubt, Content does not include the final published version or final version of record (unless the content in question is an article reused in a dissertation/thesis in which case the author is allowed to reuse the final published version).
- 11.4.c. Scholarly and educational purposes: Non-commercial purposes encompassing teaching, research, and institutional needs, including but not limited to the right to (a) use, reproduce, distribute, perform, and display the Content in connection with teaching, conference presentations, and lectures; (b) make full use of the Content in future research, and update or revise the Content in whole or in part for later publication; (c) meet requirements and conditions of research grants or publishing subventions provided by government and not for profit funder bodies, and; (d) grant to the Author's employing institution some or all of the foregoing rights, as well as permission to use the Content in connection with administrative activities such as accreditation, mandated reports to state or federal governments, and similar purposes. In all cases, the Author and/or the Author's employing institution will be expected to provide proper citation and links to the published version. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding the foregoing, scholarly and educational purposes does not include commercial use, which means use that is directly or indirectly intended for monetary gain or commercial advantage.

12. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 12.1. The Consortium and Wiley will work together on a joint communications plan for the announcement of the Agreement, agreeing to the content and timeline for messages to stakeholders (such as librarians, authors, university leaders) as well as public statements and press releases.
- 12.2. Wiley may assign this Agreement to its successors, subsidiaries or assigns. This Agreement may not be assigned by the Customer except with the prior written consent of Wiley.
- 12.3. This agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with Danish Law and shall be subject to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Danish courts, provided that Wiley may bring any action against the Customer in the courts of the country in which the Customer maintains its principal place of business. Each party hereby consents and submits to the personal jurisdiction of such court, waives any objection to venue in such court and consents to the service of process by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, at the last known address of such party.
- 12.4. Notwithstanding any other term in this Agreement, neither Party's delay or failure to perform any provision of this Agreement due to circumstances beyond its control (including, without limitation, war; civil disorder; strike; flood; fire; storm; accident; terrorism; governmental restriction; infectious disease; epidemic; pandemic; public health emergency; embargo; power, telecommunications or Internet failures; damage to or destruction of any network facilities; the enactment of any law, executive order, or judicial decree; or any other circumstance beyond a Party's control whether similar or dissimilar to the foregoing) ("Force Majeure") will be deemed to be, or to give rise to, a breach of this Agreement. The Party claiming Force Majeure will provide written notice of the circumstances (where possible) and will be entitled to a reasonable extension of time for performing such obligations. Where Wiley is claiming Force Majeure, Wiley will be entitled to implement a reasonable alternative where practical under the circumstances and if its inability to perform continues for more than 30 days or it is inadvisable or commercially impractical to perform due to Force Majeure, the parties will renegotiate the terms set forth in this Agreement to mitigate the effects of the Force Majeure and Wiley and the Consortium will conduct all such renegotiations in good faith.

- 12.5. Any notice, request, statement or other communication to be given hereunder to any party must be in writing addressed to Wiley at the address on page one, attention Executive Vice President, and to the Customer's Agreement Administrator at the address on Schedule 1, or mailed or delivered to such other address as each party may designate by notice given in like manner, and any such notice, request, statement or other communication, will be deemed to have been given when received, except that if mailed by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or delivered by overnight courier service, it will be deemed to have been given when mailed as aforesaid or when delivered.
- 12.6. This Agreement with Wiley internal number 20693 constitutes the complete understanding of the parties and supersedes all prior understandings between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. No modification, amendment, or waiver of any provisions will be valid unless in writing and executed by the parties. Any waiver in one or more instances by either of the parties of any breach by the other of any terms or provisions contained in this Agreement will not be considered a waiver of any succeeding or preceding breach. In the event that any section of this Agreement is determined to be void or unenforceable, the remainder of the Agreement will survive.
- 12.7. The Parties waive any rule of construction that requires that ambiguities in this Agreement be construed against the drafter.
- 12.8. All Appendices attached or to be attached to this Agreement are incorporated herein and shall be by the terms and conditions of this Agreement unless otherwise specified in such Appendix.
